Dear Mr. Soldan,

Please find in attachment the answer from BCV. It rejects your claim by saying that a negative answer was already communicated to you orally by Mr. Meylan during a meeting that was held with you on May 18, 2016.

It explains that the service of credits refused your file internally in April, but Mr. Meylan tried to insist with them in order to get elements which could have satisfied their needs.

BCV denies that the refusal was communicated on June 23, 2016 only. They argue that until then, Mr. Meylan tried to find solutions to push the file but without success.

I doubt that these explanations are sincere and of good faith. I am ready to read your feedback thereupon.

Best regards,
